

Provisions for using pieces removed from the Syllabus

Pieces from an earlier syllabus may still be presented for examination for up to six months after their removal.

How to enter an old syllabus piece

When submitting your examination application:

1. In place of your old syllabus piece, from the drop down menu select “Old Syllabus Piece 1” for the first piece. If you have more than one old syllabus pieces, then “Old Syllabus Piece 2,” and/or “Old Syllabus Piece 3,” are to be selected in the subsequent drop down menus.
2. In the Special Requests field, enter the details of each old syllabus piece being presented, including:
 - Composer's name
 - Title of the piece
 - Name of the book or collection from which the piece is taken.

Please note: Pieces removed from the syllabus more than six months before the examination date will not be accepted.

Cut-off Dates for Removed Syllabus Pieces

The following are the final dates on which removed syllabus pieces may be presented for examination:

Instrument	Grade	Final Acceptance Date
Piano	Preliminary	30 April 2027
Piano	Grade 1	30 April 2027

This list will be updated as further syllabus changes are completed.

Questions?

If you have any questions about using pieces from an earlier syllabus, please contact admin@conbrioexams.com.